

Why Auxano?

Auxano is the first “clarity first” consulting group for ministry leaders. Our primary work is to guide effective teams through a God-ward and collaborative clarity process called the Vision Pathway. For the past five years we have developed an unusually diverse list of clients with varied challenges. Whether the challenge is rapid growth, deep organizational turn-around, or vision rollout, Auxano is regarded as a unique and trusted ministry partner for the best leaders in North America.

Three ways for you to walk the Vision Pathway

0 Onsite Navigation

We work side-by-side with your team to align and advance vision with stunning clarity. Our navigators bring a unique blend of thought-leadership, church experience and passion for culture-shaping vision. The journey is an adventure, but one where we do all the preparation and guidance.

co::Lab

In the co::Lab we provide “design support” and real time feedback as you walk the Vision Pathway with a select team of church leaders. This collaborative lab concept is designed for church planters, emerging consultants and senior pastors who prefer to navigate the adventure on their own, but with strategic coaching.

V VisionRoom.com

This online portal is your access to all things “vision” including Auxano’s own toolbox. Here you will find a best-practice outfitter for the visioning adventure that you design. In addition to a wide variety of free Church Unique downloadable tools you will find the gateway to Auxano blogs that capture the latest thinking and stories from our field of vision.
